LOCAL BRIEFS.

F. G. Carthey will build a $5,000 residence on Twelfth East street near South Temple.

This is Holy Thursday, and the day is being observed by the Catholics and Episcopalians.

The Sunday school teachers of St. Paul's church met this evening to prepare for Easter services.

Mrs. Isabel Lords of Annan, Ida., is at the Keogh-Wright hospital with two of her children for treatment.

In the Scandinavian meeting this evening a lecture was given by Elder J. M. Sjodahl on "The Crucifixion."

The steel construction for the Y. M. C. A. building is arriving, and the only delay is in securing the stone for the sills.

B. B. Quinn leaves today for Warren, Ind., with the remains of his friend, Emanuel Rauch. The burial will take place there.

Prominent Salt Lake Odd Fellows, including Rev. P. A. Simpson and J. J. Thomas, are at oak, to institute an Odd Fellows lodge there.

Good Friday services will be held by the German Lutherans tomorrow at 3 p. m. in the Swedish Lutheran church at Fourth East and Second South streets.

The parsonage of the Central Christian church on Third East street near Fourth South, has been purchased by Judge Bowdler, who will shortly occupy it.

The Calanthe-Myrtille lodge of Knights of Pythias will have a banquet on the evening of April 4, when the grand officers of the state and invited guests will be present.

State Superintendent Nelson, Prof. Stewart and Miss Vinout of the state university will act as judges at the Utah county educational fair at Provo, April 22 and 23.

Mr. L. C. Kelsey, former city engineer, is in a very exuberant frame of mind today. The cause thereof is the arrival at his home of a nine-pound baby girl. All are doing well.

William H. Burton, Jr., who was sentenced from this city June 6 of last year to the state prison for two years for grand larceny has filed a petition for pardon with the state board of pardons.

State Auditor Tingey has made up the quarterly payrolls for the salaries of all state officials for the first quarter of this year. The amount of the payrolls is $23,000. The warrants for the same will be ready for distribution Friday.

The Morgan county roads are so impassable because of the mud that exercises that were to be held at Morgan City today, in connection with the county schools, have had to be abandoned.

Surely advertising pays. The Deseret News book store's announcement of cheap prices on Webster's Unabridged dictionary, today brought an order with a remittance from J. Francis Child of the Sandwich Islands.

Mrs. W. J. Hiser of El Verano, Sonoma county, Cal., writes to Postmaster Thomas, hoping to get on the trail of her brother, A. F. Keuhner, from whom she has not heard since April, 1898. He is supposed to be living in this city, but has not replied to his sister's letters.

The funeral of the late Dr. C. M. Garrison was held this afternoon from the First Congregational church, Rev. E. L.

Goshen conducting the service, and the remains were deposited in a vault at Mt. Olivet, preparatory to shipment to Newburg, N. Y., for interment. Edward Gridley of New York, cousin of Dr. Garrison, arrived yesterday, to be present at the funeral, and to look after matters connected with the estate of the deceased.

Building Inspector F. W. Lewis says that he intends to strictly enforce the ordinance of the city in regard to the construction of buildings with a view to decreasing the fire risks. Chief Bywater of the fire department will assist the building inspector in keeping a watch on buildings in process of construction to see that there is no faulty construction work going on. Contractors would probably save considerable trouble by watching on the building ordinances of the city if they are not already familiar with them.

Ex-Sheriff Virgil Kelly of Millard county, is here from Fillmore. He says there have been refreshing rains in that section of the state in the last two weeks, but that up to that time it has been extremely dry; and to the south it has been bone dry all winter. He reports an extended feeling of discouragement all over the southern part of the state, and farmers, ranchmen and stockmen are getting ready to remove to Idaho or Alberta, where more favorable conditions obtain, and where the fight for life is not so hard. There is no snow in the southern mountains.

At yesterday afternoon's meeting of the world's fair commission the secretary was directed to pay $1,208 to Director General Whitaker for Utah building furniture, and to wire Mr. Whitaker for plans for the educational department for approval by the commission. A letter from Mr. Whitaker stated that work was at a standstill because the painters were on a strike, and the lack of furniture. Naming a director for the educational department was left with the state board of education, and the appointment of other employees was left until April 6 next.

Dun's Review, after giving Salt Lake a rest of several months, has concluded to restore it to its place in the weekly trade report, and says of business conditions here, for the week ending last Saturday evening, "Trade, both wholesale and retail, is rather quiet, and to some extent is retarded by continued unfavorable weather and bad roads. Some country buyers also with market orders, pending their visit to market during conference the early part of next month. Collections are slow, but compare fairly well with last year. Money is tight and in good demand."

The Elks held their annual election last night, with some 200 members present, and the following officers were chosen: Exalted ruler, P. P. Christensen; esteemed leading knight, W. W. Hall; esteemed loyal knight, J. C. Barthol; esteemed lecturing knight, D. F. Halm; secretary, A. W. Raybould; treasurer, J. N. Sharp; Tyler, A. A. Headberg; trustee, W. H. Dale; representative of the grand lodge, J. C. Leary; alternate, A. W. Raybould. A list of 10 delegates to the Provo convention was selected by the exalted ruler. BRIGHAM U. S. YOUNG.

Man Named After "Mormon" Leader Visiting in Salt Lake.

Mr. Brigham U. S. Young, a resident of Apsley, Ontario, Canada, is in the city. Mr. Young is not a member of the "Mormon" Church, neither is his father nor any of his family, as his name might lead many people to suppose. He states, however, that his father was so strong an admirer of the late President Brigham Young and Gen. U. S. Grant, that he determined his son should be named after them. This conclusion is endorsed by the son himself, who this morning called at the Bureau of Information and Church Literature and proudly registered as "Brigham U. S. Young." The gentleman is much impressed with his visit to this city and his appreciation of President Young, whose namesake he is, is certainly refreshing in these times of hatred and opposition.

HELD FOR GRAND LARCENY

Big Lucille Will Have to Stand Trial in the District Court.

"Big Lucille," the woman who was given a preliminary hearing on the charge of robbing Frank Adair of $600, will have to face the charge of grand larceny in the district court. An account of her hearing was published in last evening's "News." The hearing was concluded yesterday afternoon, and Judge Diehl took the case under advisement until 10 o'clock this morning. He then ruled that there was probable cause to believe the defendant guilty as charged, and ordered her held to await the action of the higher court. In default of $500 bonds, she was taken to the county jail.

BEFORE DIEHL.

Daniel Grow and Jerald Budd Arraigned On Charge of Incurability.

Judge C. B. Diehl had several state cases before him this morning. Two boys, Daniel Grow and Jerald Budd, charged with incurability, entered pleas of not guilty and their cases were set for April 6 when they will be given a hearing. They were released on their own recognizance.

Joe Brown, who early yesterday morning, made an assault with a butcher knife on Bart Leroy in a lunchroom on Second South street, was charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to do bodily harm. His hearing was set for April 1, at which time he will enter his plea. He was unable to furnish $250 bonds, and was taken to the county jail.

The case of the state vs. C. H. Moore, charged with being a fugitive from justice, will be heard on April 7, at 10 a. m.

MRS. PIXTON'S WILL

The will of Elizabeth Pixton, deceased, has been filed for probate in the district court, under the petition of Robert and Willard Pixton asking that letters testamentary be issued to them. Mrs. Pixton died at Taylorsville March 20, and left an estate valued at about $5,777.77.
